Terms and Conditions of the Auction

I. PARTICIPATION IN THE AUCTION

1. Individuals and companies may participate in the auction under the same conditions and without restrictions.
2. If the Participant acts through a proxy, the proxy must present an appropriate power of attorney with legible signatures (in the original form or a copy thereof).
3. The Auction Participant shall pay a single Bid Deposit in the amount of EUR 5,000.00 (in words: five thousand 00/100 EUR), regardless of the number of lots they intend to purchase. Failure to pay the Bid Deposit shall constitute grounds for exclusion from the Auction.

The Bid Deposit may be paid as follows:

- a) For On-Live Participants: by transfer to the bank account number provided by the organizer on the website www.polish-arabianhorsesdays.com (in PLN or EUR), or in cash (in PLN or EUR), or via cashless payment (in PLN or EUR) using a payment terminal — provided that technical conditions for cashless payment via terminal are made available.
 - b) For On-Line Participants: via the Equibid online platform.
4. The payment of the bid bond entitles the participant to bid for each horse. By paying the bid bond, the participant undertakes to comply with the auction conditions. The participant is obliged to sign the auction conditions during registration.
 5. If the proxy is authorized to act within the Auction by more than one Participant, such proxy is obliged to pay one bid bond.
 6. In the case of online auctions, a financial security deposit called a “Confirmation Payment” is required. This amount must be paid immediately, no later than within 20 minutes, without the possibility of extension, after the Purchase Price is confirmed. The minimum amount and the terms of refund for the paid “Confirmation Payment” are determined by a separate regulation of the Online Service.
 7. In the event of a transaction, the bid bond and Payment Confirmation secure the payment of the purchase price. If the purchase price is paid, they are counted towards the purchase price, and the Auction Organizer transfers the bid bond and Payment Confirmation to the exhibitor.

8. In the event that the Transaction is not concluded, the Bid Bond shall be refunded within 30 days from the date of the Auction's conclusion. The date of the Bid Bond refund shall be considered as the date of the cash refund or the date of debiting the bank account from which the refund is made, as applicable. From the amount of the refunded or transferred Bid Bond, the Organizer or the Service Provider shall deduct any bank fees incurred in connection with the receipt, refund, or transfer of the Bid Bond.
9. Should the buyer fail to complete the transaction for the auctioned horse, the security deposit will be forfeited.

II. BIDDING

1. The auction is conducted in a hybrid format: both 'Online' via the website <http://www.equibid.pl> and 'On-Live' with the simultaneous participation of individuals physically present at the auction venue. Auction prices are given in EURO. The following bid increments apply: at the Pride of Poland Auction — one thousand euros (€1000) and at the Summer Sale — five hundred euros (€500).
2. The auctioneer conducts the auction, in particular announcing the start and end of the auction, the start and end of the bidding, coordinating the activity of participants taking part in the auction on the website and participating in the auction through physical, direct presence at the auction site, accepting bids submitted during the auction, indicates the bid increments, indicates the winner of the auction, resolves the order of submitted offers or other disputes regarding the auction, including individual biddings.
3. The auctions use reserve prices. Individual horses must have a determined reserve price. Failure to reach the reserve price during the auction may result in failure to conclude the sale transaction. The reserve price is not public. The auctioneer informs about the reserve price not being reached and that the transaction has not been concluded.
4. The person from whom the auctioneer accepted the highest bid becomes the buyer.

Terms and Conditions of the Auction

5. The amount determined during the auction, which is the "Fall of Hammer" Price, confirmed by the auctioneer's "fall of hammer", will be increased by the applicable tax on goods and services (8% VAT), if applicable.
6. The Auction Organizer, at the request of the Owner of the Object, has the right to deny participation in the Auction to a Participant indicated by the Owner, if — particularly based on previous experience — there are justified grounds to believe that the Participant is unreliable in fulfilling the obligations associated with participating in and winning the Auction.
7. A bid increment made by a participant or a transaction concluded by a buyer whose account is deleted or suspended before the end of the auction will no longer be binding. Information about account deletion or suspension is made visible during the auction.
8. The Organizer, Stadnina Koni Janów Podlaski Sp. z o. o., reserves the right to withdraw a horse or horses before or during the auction without giving a reason.

III. DESCRIPTION AND HEALTH CONDITION OF HORSES

1. Each horse offered at the auction has a confirmed origin and is registered in the Polish Arabian Horse Stud Book.
2. Each mare sold in foal has a covering certificate and a written certificate from a veterinarian regarding the last date of examination. The certificate or its copy is available for inspection at the auction office. If the organizer does not obtain the certificate before the start of the auction, he reserves the right to announce that the certificate has not been presented by the seller.
3. A mare with a foal at foot during the auction (younger than 6 months) will be able to be collected by the Buyer only after the foal has been weaned. Until the Buyer collects the mare, it stays at the stud farm at the Exhibitor's expense. The date of collection of the mare will be agreed between the Exhibitor and the Buyer.

IV. BUYER'S OBLIGATIONS

1. The buyer is obliged to:
 - sign the purchase contract provided by the organizer to the buyer immediately after the winning auction
 - confirm his/her personal data by presenting an identity document or documents confirming the legal status of his/her business activity — if the buyer is a participant taking part in the auction via the website <http://www.equibid.pl>, he is obliged to immediately pay, directly after the auction, the Confirmation payment.

The cost of maintaining and collecting the horse, including in particular the cost of transport, preparation for transport, the transport itself and the cost of insurance, are borne by the buyer. The place of delivery and collection of the horse will always be the address indicated by the exhibitor in Poland.
2. The risk related to the purchased horse and its offspring born after the auction is transferred to the buyer with the "fall of the hammer" by the auctioneer.
3. In the event of a breach of the Terms and Conditions by the Buyer to whom the Auctioneer awarded the Sale — particularly regarding the confirmation of the Transaction, payment of the purchase price, or collection of the Object — the Auction Organizer has the right to invalidate the Auction involving that Buyer and offer the Object to another Auction Participant. The purchase offer will first be made to the Participant whose bid was the closest to that of the original Buyer.
4. Collection of the horse purchased at the auction is possible immediately after the auction, provided that the full value of the sales contract is paid in cash or by a confirmed bank transfer to the organizer's bank account.
5. In the event of failure to pay the full Purchase Price or failure to collect the Object for reasons attributable to the Buyer, the costs related to the Object, in particular the costs of maintenance, safeguarding, storage, and keeping it in proper condition, shall be borne by the Buyer.

Terms and Conditions of the Auction

V. INSURANCE

1. The cost of delivery and receipt of the Object, including in particular the cost of transportation, preparation for transportation, shipment, and insurance, shall be borne by the Buyer.

VI. TO BE CONSIDERED BEFORE PURCHASE

1. The buyer is recommended to carefully inspect the horse before purchasing it.
2. All horses are sold under the terms and conditions contained in the Regulations of the Pride of Poland and Summer Sale 2025 auctions. All changes and corrections to the data contained in the catalog are valid and are announced during the auction.

VII. RESPONSIBILITY FOR THE HORSES

1. All persons present at the event site throughout its duration remain there at their own risk. The auction organizer is not responsible for the safety of these people and their property during the event.
2. The owner of the horse is responsible for its safety and health from the moment the horse arrives at the auction site, throughout its stay until it is sold. After "fall of hammer" by the auctioneer or direct sale, all risk is transferred to the Buyer.
3. The Organizer is not responsible for any horse, any damage caused by it or any damage it may suffer while stationed at the Auction area.
4. The Organizer reserves the right to examine every horse arriving and stationed at the Auction area, to prohibit entry, and to order the isolation of any horse not eligible for sale without giving a reason.
